26 HANDLING BREACHES AND MISCONDUCT

- 26.1 The reporting of any breaches of OBSF Disciplinary Rules and/or displays of serious misconduct during an OBSF Championship event is encouraged.
- 26.2 Any person connected with or attending a Championship event has the right to lodge a complaint, provided it is based on genuine fact and is not done with maliciousness or to create mischief. "Any person" includes the Tournament Director, a Referee, a Tournament Official, an Affiliated Representative, a Player, a Sponsor or a Member of the Public.

- 26.3 When a complaint is lodged about a breach of the OBSF Disciplinary Rules or serious misconduct, it is necessary to inform the individual concerned about the complaint made against them so they have the full opportunity to defend and justify their behaviour.

27 INFORMAL COMPLAINT RESOLUTION

- 27.1 Depending on its severity and the individuals involved, a breach of rules or misconduct complaint may be able to be addressed and resolved quickly through informal means without the need to escalate the matter to a Disciplinary Committee Hearing.

An example of this may be where a player complains that another player is displaying bad sportsmanship, such as appearing to distract their opponent with noise, taking a lot of toilet breaks or displaying very slow play. The player may choose to talk to the other player one-to-one, get them to understand their concerns and persuade them to acknowledge and to change their behaviour.

- 27.2 If taking this step is successful and the Complainant believes the matter is resolved, then no further action may be necessary and the matter can be closed.

- 27.3 If, however:

- the Complainant is unsure how to handle the problem; or
- the Complainant wants to talk confidentially about the problem with someone and get some more information about what to do; or
- the problem continues after the Complainant has tried to approach the person or people involved;

then the Complainant is strongly recommended to talk with the Tournament Director (or a member of the Championship Committee or a member of the OBSF Executive, whomever is present).

If the Tournament Director is the subject of the misconduct complaint, then it must be raised with the Secretary or President or another Executive Member of the OBSF who is present during the Championship event.

- 27.4 Through discussing the matter with the Tournament Director and/or another Executive Member of the OBSF that may be present, the Complainant may decide that there is no problem or that it is only a minor problem and they do not wish to take the matter further. Alternatively, they may decide to try and work out their own resolution, with or without a support person such as a Tournament Director, or they may decide to seek an informal mediated resolution with the help of a third person.

28 FORMAL COMPLAINT RESOLUTION

- 28.1 In bringing the complaint to the Tournament Director's attention, the Complainant must do so openly. If the Complainant wishes to remain anonymous, then the Tournament Director cannot assist with the complaint resolution.

- 28.2 After initial discussions with the Complainant, the Tournament Director is obliged to follow the principles of natural justice and be fair to both sides. This means that the person/people you have complained about has to be provided with full details of the complaint so they have a fair chance to respond to all the allegations.

- 28.3 If a Formal Complaint is lodged with the Tournament Director, he/she is required to:

- get the full details of the complaint in writing from the complainant;
- inform the person who is the subject of the complaint the full details of the complaint and give them the opportunity to fully respond to the allegations;
- investigate and establish the facts, confirming any witness statements;
- determine whether the complaint of misconduct is justified;
- discuss what disciplinary actions are appropriate
- see that the appropriate actions are taken and that the matter is resolved with all parties
- act as a support person to the complainant through the mediation process
- refer the Complainant to someone else more appropriate to help resolve the complaint, if required

28.4 At any time, the Complainant may well decide:

- to withdraw the complaint
- the complaint is of a minor nature and they do not wish to take the matter further;
- to try and work out their own resolution (with or without a support person such as a Tournament Director); or
- to seek an informal mediated resolution with the help of a third person

28.5 If a complaint is not resolved to the Complainant's satisfaction, they may:

- make a formal complaint in writing to the Secretary and/or President of the OBSF
- approach a relevant external agency or authority.

29 DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

29.1 If a Formal Complaint of a breach of the OBSF's Disciplinary Rules is made to the Secretary of the OBSF after all previous efforts to formally and informally resolve the complaint have been undertaken, then the OBSF will appoint a Disciplinary Committee comprising;

- the Complaints Officer (Secretary or President, OBSF);
- Representative of the Regional Country where the offence occurred;
- Representative of the Regional Country where the respondent is domiciled
- Representative of the Regional Country where the complainant is domiciled

29.2 The duties of the Committee are to investigate the complaint and determine whether the complaint constitutes a breach of the OBSF Disciplinary Rules and represents serious misconduct. Thereafter the Disciplinary Committee will recommend to the Executive Board the penalty to be imposed.

29.3 An investigation needs to be conducted following the steps below:

- A written brief will be provided by the Disciplinary Committee to the designated person appointed to investigate the matter to ensure the terms of reference and scope of for the investigator's role and responsibilities are clear.
- The complainant will be interviewed and the complaint documented in writing.
- The details of the complaint will be conveyed to the person/people complained about (respondent(s) in full. The respondent(s) must be given sufficient information to enable them to properly respond to the complaint.
- The respondent(s) will be interviewed and given the opportunity to respond The respondent(s) response to the complaint will be documented in writing.
- If there is a dispute over the facts, then statements from witnesses and other relevant evidence will be obtained to assist in a determination.

- The Disciplinary Committee will make a finding as to whether the complaint is:
 - substantiated (there is sufficient evidence to support the complaint);
 - inconclusive (there is insufficient evidence either way);
 - unsubstantiated (there is sufficient evidence to show that the complaint is unfounded);
 - malicious, mischievous, vexatious or knowingly untrue.
- A report documenting the complaint, investigation process, evidence, finding and, if requested, recommendations, will be given to the Complaints Officer

- Both the complainant and the respondent(s) are entitled to support throughout this process from their chosen support person/adviser

- 30.2 A complainant or a respondent(s) who is not satisfied with a decision can lodge one appeal to the OBSF on one or more of the following occasions:
- That a denial of natural justice has occurred; or
 - That the disciplinary penalty(s) imposed is unjust and/or unreasonable.
- 30.3 A person wanting to appeal must lodge a letter stating their intention and the basis for their appeal with the Secretary within 14 days of the relevant decision.
- 30.4 If the letter of appeal is not received by the Secretary within the relevant time period, the right of appeal will lapse.
- 30.5 Upon receipt of the letter of appeal, the Secretary must convene a special meeting of the OBSF Appeals Committee to review the letter of appeal and decide whether there are sufficient grounds for the appeal to proceed. The Appeals Committee will be able to invite any witnesses to the meeting it believes are required to make an informed decision.
